

WIESBADEN WEEKLY

November 11, 2021

HOME.ARMY.MIL/WIESBADEN

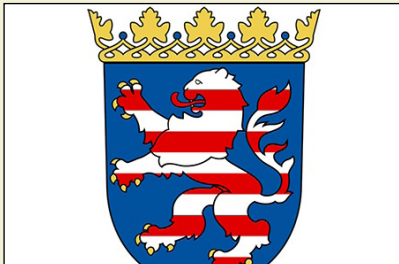

News and events from the U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden military community in Germany

Wiesbaden Army Airfield's new air traffic control tower makes major progress

The U. S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden Army Airfield is getting a new air traffic control tower and a capping ceremony was held Nov. 9 signifying a major milestone in the project's completion.

Courtesy Translation: Corona warning level 1: State government reacts with package of measures

State government reacts with package of measures. Minister President Volker Bouffier and Health Minister Kai Klose: "The obligation to test will be noticeably expanded. Vaccination is and remains the best protection."

56th Artillery Command re-activates as the Theater Fires Command in Wiesbaden

U.S. Army Europe and Africa re-activated the 56th Artillery Command as the Theater Fires Command Nov. 8 on Allen Field at Clay Kaserne. It will be headquartered with the 2nd Multi-Domain Task Force on Mainz-Kastel.

Wiesbaden holds annual Army Family Action Plan conference

Garrison delegates gathered at the Wiesbaden Entertainment Center Oct. 26 through 28 to identify, develop and prioritize issues during the 38th annual conference.

Courtesy Translation: State government extends Corona ordinance

State government extends Corona ordinance. Among other things, the testing obligation in old people's homes and nursing homes as well as in hospitals will be tightened.

THINGS TO DO IN THE COMMUNITY

Shooting stars market 2021

Nov. 23 - Dec. 23
Near the Marktkirche,
Downtown Wiesbaden

Wiesbaden Christmas Market: The city of Wiesbaden will bring back their traditional Christmas Market back this year.

The food area of the market will have 2G access. As a new addition, there will be a kids' section on the Luisenplatz with a miniature train, a carousel and an ice rink.

More info HERE

